Doorways To Opportunity

We, the students of St. Gregory realize that in achieving our goals and utilizing our opportunities we must pass through the various gateways of life. It is our hope to portray this thought in the 1961 Gregorian.

We dedicate the Gregorian to our parents who opened the door to our natural life, to our pastor and priests who opened the door to our supernatural life, and to our faculty who opened the door to our future through Christian education.

The opportunities presented to us through our spiritual training are many. We, in addition to personal sanctification, will be able to promote God's Will and provide the Catholic Church with informed, alert, young Catholic men and women.

Our formal academic education grooms us for positions of leadership and responsibility which we as free American Catholics must be ready to assume.

Our Esteemed Pastor

Right Reverend Frank A. Pokriefka

After graduation, we will always remember Monsignor as a loving father and guide for he has opened the most important door to our future success--the door to leadership. The only true test of leadership is to lead. This, Monsignor has done wisely and courageously. If we are to be mature Catholic leaders and loyal American citizens we must be shown the way. For the past twelve years Monsignor has shown us the way--mixing the right proportions of wisdom, discipline, and understanding. He has been a living example of true leadership, showing us that it is an essential part of our Catholic education.

Our Assistants

Reverend Joseph Lisee

Through the teaching and guidance of these men of God the student attains a sound grasp of Christian principles and learns to build a solid pattern of Christian Living that will endure a lifetime. It is the priest who teaches him a reverence for the things sacred in life. The priest is also a friend to each and every student. His guidance, advice, and encouragement in time of need do not go unappreciated.

Our Faculty, Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate

The faculty members are not only teachers but also friends and counselors. The teacher as an individual may be forgotten by the student, but time will not efface the Christian principles that have been instilled. James

Major, Mary Randazzo, Cecelia Wierzbicki, and Raymond Jennings happily anticipate another day in school together with two of their teachers, Sister Rose de Lourdes and Sister Vita Marie.

Spiritual Activities Offer Opportunities

for Personal Sanctification. . .

One of the primary reasons why our parents sent us to St. Gregory was the benefits of a Catholic education. By the term Catholic education we mean not only instruction in our religion, but all the religious and spiritual influences exerted on our school life and extra-curricular activities. That we simply learn the fundamental doctrines of our faith is not enough, we must put what we learn into practice. By applying what we learn to ourselves and our actions we help to achieve our personal sanctification. We have ample opportunities for improving our spiritual life at St. Gregory. Some of these opportunities are daily assistance at Holy Mass, and co-operative action with such groups as the sodality and altar boys. Finally, one of the most significant of all spiritual activities is the annual high school retreat. By taking advantage of the numerous opportunities of a Catholic education we build a strong earthly foundation for our final goal--eternity in heaven.

We Live Our Faith

Wearing his stole, Father Lisee prepares to go into the confessional where he will either restore or replenish Sanctifying Grace in the souls of the penitents. Judy Driscoll and Larry Leshan pray that the Holy Ghost will enlighten their minds and help them make a fruitful confession.

The blessing of St. Blaise is conferred by Father Rettig upon Pamela Pariseau, while the freshman class waits for their turn to kneel at the altar rail.

Father Van Hoof places the Sacred Host upon the tongue of Jo-Anne Nehs, one of the many regular communicants among the student body.

Partake of Its Blessings and Sacraments . . .

Monsignor has opened these doors for us many times since we made our first Holy Communion. It is by our frequent reception of this sacrament that our lives are deified, strengthened, and glorified by our contact with the God-Man's Eucharistic Flesh. Students well remember what Christ has said, "Unless you eat of My Flesh and drink of My Blood, you shall not have everlasting life." With these words of Christ firmly implanted in the mind of all students, St. Gregory's altar rail is always well filled during our Mass.

At the beginning of the ring ceremony Junior honor-guards sing a hymn to Our Blessed Mother as Margaret Foley leads the Senior procession down the aisle.

The significance of the graduation ring is explained by our Pastor. This ring is a symbol of fidelity to our school, our Church, and our parish.

Kneeling before Monsignor Pokriefka, the seniors receive the Church's blessing upon their rings along with a special blessing of St. Joseph.

Sacramentals

"Thee, Christ Redeemer King" expresses our prayer in song.

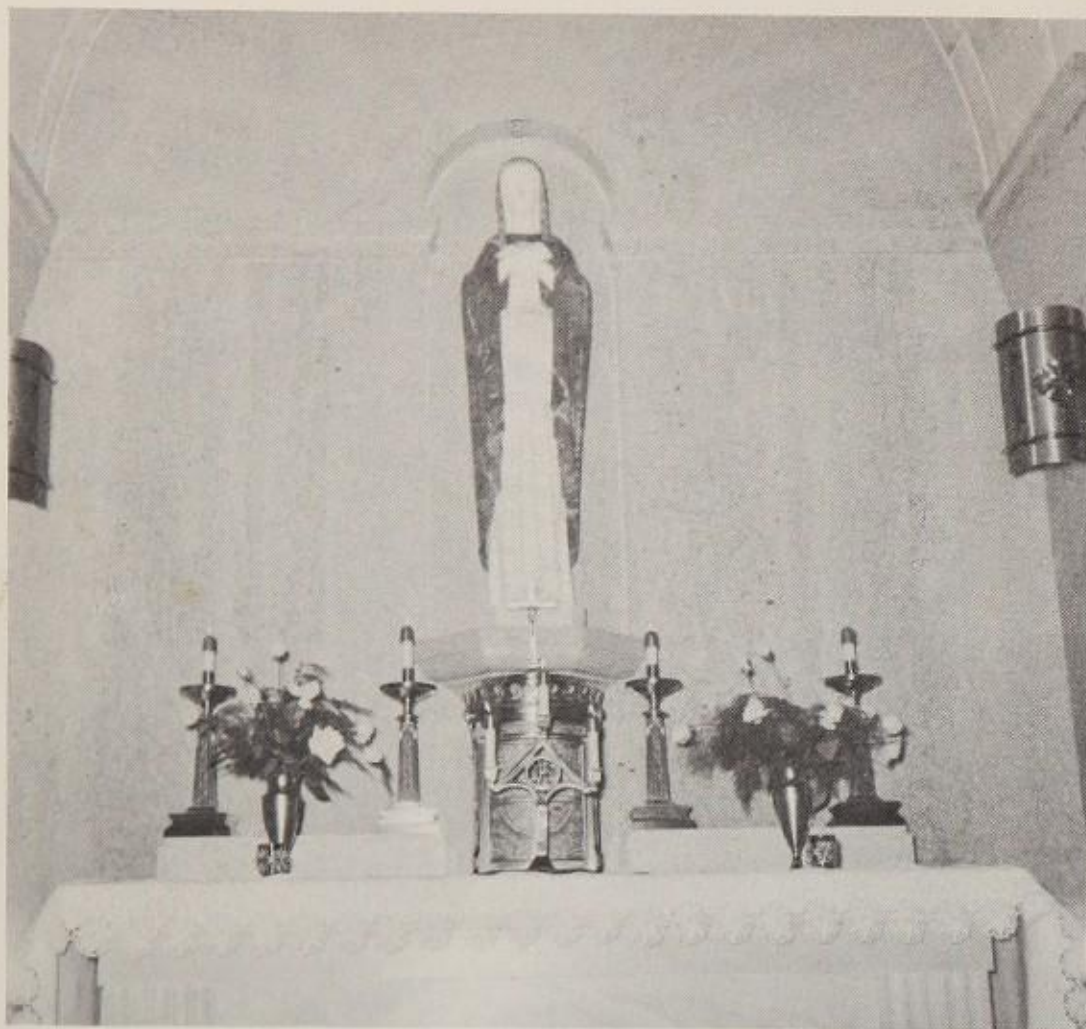

With hearts enlightened and voices lifted in praise, the procession moved slowly out of church, marking the close of the ceremony.

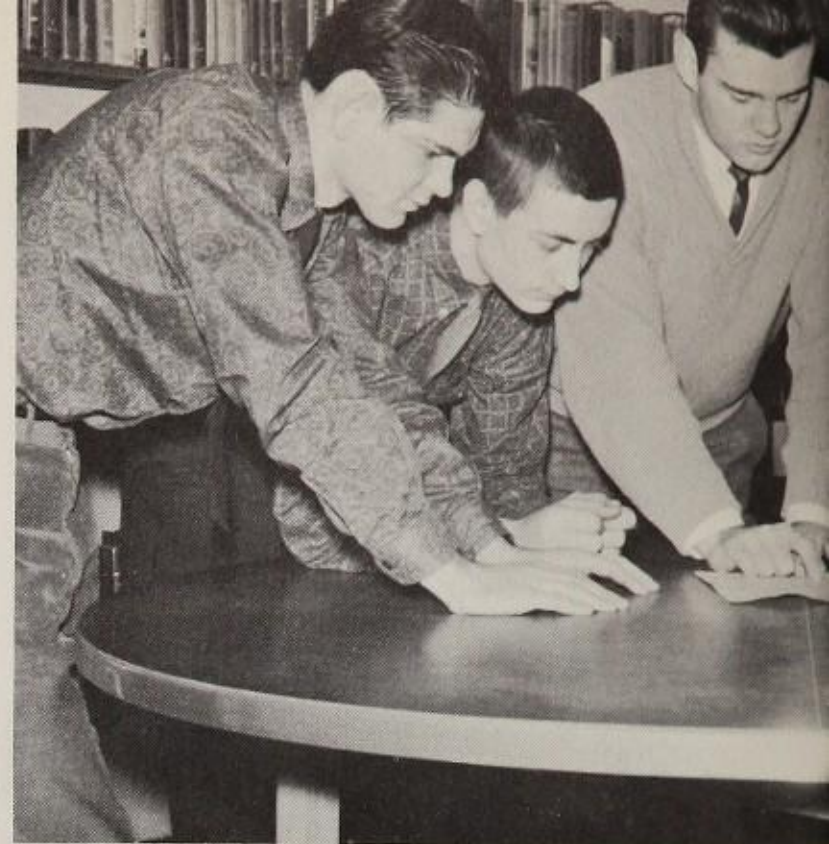

The senior boys, led by Paul Loiselle, solemnly walk to their places as the ceremony commences.

Our Blessed Mother, principal patroness of the Sodality of the Annunciation and Sts. Peter and Paul, has proved her love for her children by giving them a splendid life to imitate and, as Mediatrix of all graces, bestowing enumerable favors on them.

Sodalists at St. Gregory Aim to Live

Chicago's Conrad Hilton played host to Sodalists, Frank Turk, Mike Hickey, Mike Sullivan, Cathy Pierce, Janet Boddy, Jo-Anne Pion, Sue Kozlowski, Mary Randazzo, Elizabeth Zappel, Sandy Ford, Jean Lippe, Nancy Grace, Annette St. Amour, Peggy Gerada, and Pam Gitre last August for the Summer School of Catholic Action. This event shall go down in history as "six days they'll never forget and six nights they never slept." These Sodalists returned with many new ideas on sodality action and the lay apostolate.

year's theme "Leadership for Life" aiming to bring out potentialities for leadership, was developed in discussion groups.

Consecration is the ultimate goal of a Sodality program. It's purpose is a more complete sanctification of self, sanctification of others, and the defense of the Church. Monsignor Pokriefka hands to Annette St. Amour the medal which symbolizes the dedication of service to the work of Our Lady. Also making the Consecration are Marian Chandler, Pam Gitre, Cathy Pierce, Sue Kozlowski, and Mary Randazzo.

Their Motto. "To Jesus Through Mary"

"The only valid test of leadership is to lead--and lead vigorously." Sodality officers are: Mistress of Candidates, Annette St. Amour; Secretary, Nancy Grace; Vice-prefect, Mike Hickey; Prefect, Jo-Anne Pion; and Publicity Chairman, Pam Gitre.

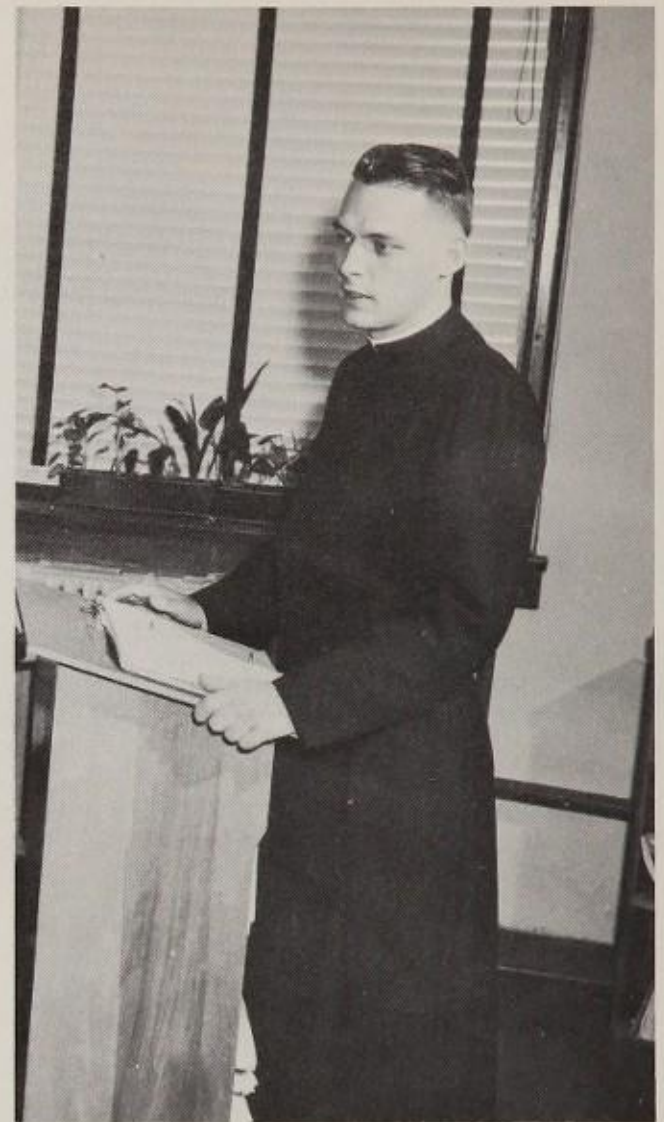

Susan Kozlowski leads a discussion on the "Sodality Way of Life" in the Senior Girls' Sodality composed of: Marian Chandler, Bruna Palma, Cecelia Wierzbicki, Jo-Anne Pion, Barbara Craib, Mary Randazzo, Annette St. Amour, and Elsie Keller.

The Stations of the Cross is one of the means granted to us by the Church for gaining indulgences. Here Joseph Leger, Joseph McDermott, Julie Stayman, Jean Lippe, and Carl Krusyinski take advantage of this opportunity to gain grace and meditate devoutly on the fourteenth Station of the Cross.

Father Brunett, our retreat master gave us some very eloquent and inspirational talks. Father's conferences led us through two-and-a-half days of prayer and recollection bringing us closer to God.

Solemnity of Holy Week Is Reflected in Retreat

Waiting for the conference these students pray that the Holy Ghost will give them grace to correspond with the inspirations of each retreat day and help them improve their spiritual lives.

Spiritual Rewards Come to All Who Honor and Serve

As Msgr. elevates the monstrance, Our Lord bestows His special blessing on each individual student and each replies with his own prayer of adoration.

These altar boys are about to end six years of service in St. Gregory's Church. Dennis Mahoney, Mike Hickey, Bill Winter, John Gentilia, and John McDermott assemble with Fr. Lisee to prepare for the rubrics for Holy Week ceremonies.

Praying that Our Blessed Lord will give them strength to persevere in the resolutions which they have made following their confession are

Doors to Opportunity. . .

The freshmen are well on their way in their new state in life--that of high school students. Their experiences in high school so far have been characterized by newness: new classes, new friends, new challenges, and new opportunities. The sophomores are now old hands in high school and are pursuing their education in earnest. Their progress and determination make us sure that their final two years at St. Gregory will be fruitful. The juniors are rapidly approaching the time when they will assume the leadership of St. Gregory from our departing seniors. The maturity and drive they have shown in the past, tell all that the juniors are prepared for such responsibility.

Juniors Receive Individual Guidance

Judy James and Richard Carroll learn the meaning of the numbered circles on the side board of Room 107. Sister Teresena explains that their position should be somewhere near the diagonal line if they are producing work which is in the line with their ability. If they find their number very much below that diagonal they had better hit the books pretty hard.

Each student is especially interested in his own progress in school but as the years go on in high school the student finds that his teachers are still more interested in his progress. The Sisters are ever ready to lend a helping hand and to give help and advice in all fields. In the spring of the year they will give individual help in choosing subjects for the following year and will be interested in fitting the schedule to the needs and interests of the individual student. They are happy to listen to our difficulties and problems and most of the time they can offer a solution. Sometimes the solution will entail some difficulty for us, such as a TV program curtailed or more time with the books but we are really grateful for their time and interest.

Not only do the Sisters give us helpful advice but we have ever at hand the faithful priests of our parish. Father Rettig and Father Lisee as well as Monsignor are interested in our activities and want us to reach our full development as young Christian men and women.

Activities Provide Opportunities for # Growth Through Participation. . .

By sharing in the various extra-curricular activities at St. Gregory, students have countless opportunities for personal achievement. As they plan, work, and share in the reward of projects successfully concluded, they can develop initiative and responsibility.

The various functions sponsored and managed by the students of St. Gregory include the Student Council, the Yearbook, the Science Fair, the Sodality Carnival, and the Junior and Senior dances.

The benefits of participation in these activities are manifold. Foremost among these are self-confidence and leadership. These qualities are gained as students learn to co-ordinate their actions toward a common goal. Their reward is the satisfaction of knowing that a task is completed,--a job is well done.

Potato chip peddlers, Jo-Anne Pion and Barbara Craib, find that Frank Turk, John Vagnetti, and Bernard Ahearn are customers with healthy appetites. The girls will turn over the proceeds to the Treasurer of the Student Council.

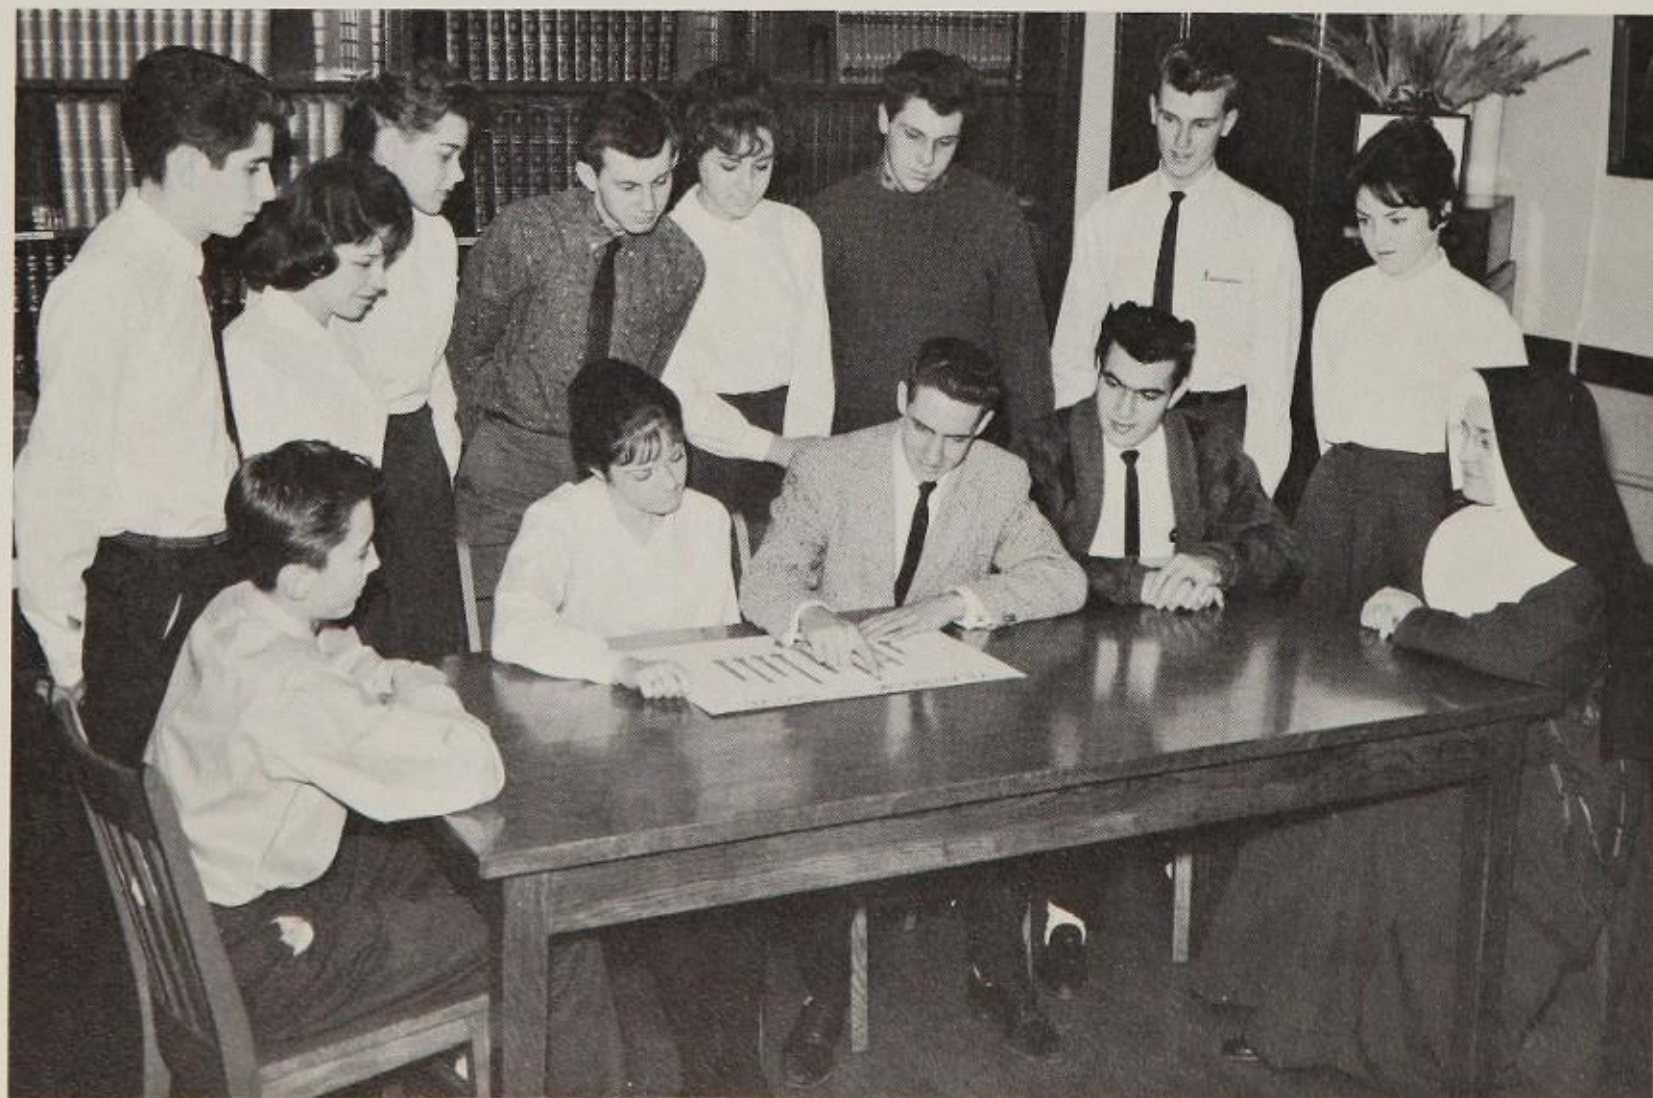

Grateful wards of the Little Sisters of the Poor will be the recipients of the gifts purchased for them as a result of the Student Council Christmas drive. Owen Nagy and Daniel Oblak are making generous contributions to representative Mary Jane McGonigal.

Student Council Activities are Opportunities

Student Council President Gerrard Beauchamp with staff and representatives makes a careful examination of the results of the yearbook subscription drive. Faculty adviser Sister Rose de Lourdes appears well satisfied with the results. The staff includes: John Gentilia, Joan Alexander, Julie Stayman, Dennis Mulcahey, Carol Lister, Joe Harrick, Gary Wismer, Mary Ellen Shea, Larry Birkett, Mary Jane McGonigal, and Dan McQueen.

Good citizenship is composed of elements which must be produced and articulated. Among the most important of these elements are: a knowledge of the theory of democracy, sentiments of law and order; intelligent respect for authority, increasing self-direction, leadership and followership, co-operation, and morale. The student council is a natural setting for training in all of these qualities. The officers and members of our student council have planned and successfully executed a number of projects including a spring dance.

Pounds of candy to be distributed at the Burtha Fisher Home for the Aged bring smiles to Jane Brennan, Mary Randazzo, Cecelia Wierzbicki, and Mary Jane McGonigal.

for Leadership Training and Raise School Spirit

February fourteenth meant more than the feast of St. Valentine this year. Student Council President Gerrard Beauchamp reminds the other officers, Dan McQueen, Mary Jane McGonigal and Larry Birkett that on that day St. Gregory High School was honored by the visit of Mr. Hall from the U. of M.

The president and first lady of the Junior Inaugural, Bernard Ahearn and Martie Nelson, smile triumphantly as the runners up, Cheryl Syke, Yvonne Diekow, Jo-Anne Pion, Ronald Boucher, Leo Stebbins, and Herbie Sanchez, show their approval. The victory climaxed a week of intensive campaigning by the eight candidates—one couple from each class.

Bernard and Martie lead a "snowball" at the J-I after Bernie's impressive "Inauguration."

Junior Inaugural Opens

Loyal alumni gave their support to the Inaugural. Besides Phil Progar with the orchestra, Steve Gitre, John Camilleri, Nada McLaughlin, Doug Gowan and many others were welcome guests.

Pam Gitre luckily enjoys a dance with the president.

New Frontiers at St. Gregory

Enthroned in the clouds Our First Lady smiles approvingly on the gay dancers. The Grand March climaxed the gala affair. First line positions are enjoyed by the president, first lady, and candidates.

Poniatowski watch with hope as Steve Gitre tries his luck at the penny toss.

The Sodality Sponsors Second Carnival

Determined Sharon Smith is going to show Leo Stebbins and Keith Winter that she knows how to drive a nail.

This is not a commercial, but Cecelia Wierzbicki, Barbara Craib, Bruna Palma, and Jerry Beauchamp do make a good advertisement for the refreshments sold at the carnival.

"I hope I will win one too," seems to be the thought in Steve Gitre's mind as the other alumni Doug Gowan, John Camilleri and Tom Watters look on.

Highlights Of

The big day has come, and the air is charged with the thrill and excitement of the coming game.

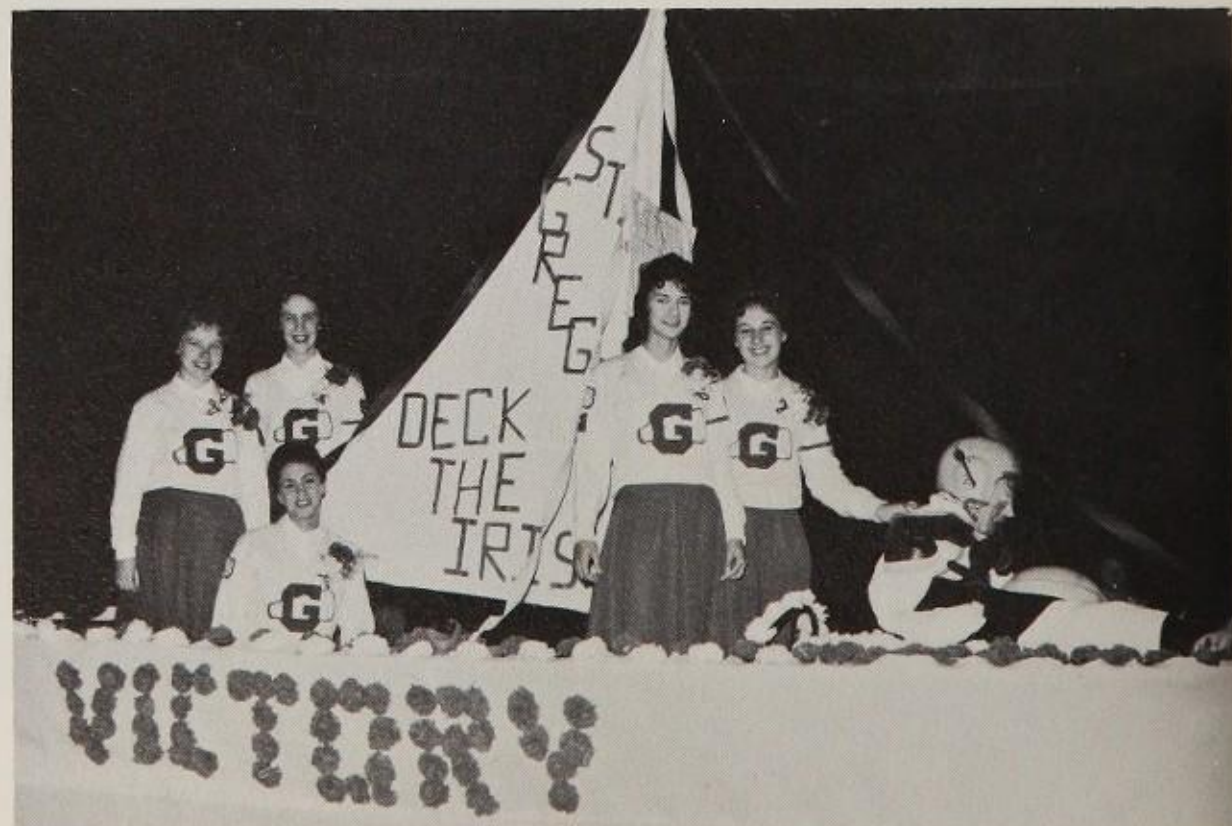

Our lovely queen, Bobby Janes, escorted by Dan McQueen, is being crowned by Carol Delaney who was accompanied by Monty Berry.

It was a crisp, cool night, perfect football weather. Excitement ran high as the judging of cars and floats started. Then the winner was announced. Congratulations Dorothy Bar! You have won first prize. And the first prize for the winning float goes to John Camilleri.

The Parade of cars started down Dexter accompanied by three police cars and one motor cycle officer. So many cars were there, that when the line reached Oakman, there were still cars in the parking lot. The six beautiful floats added color and spirit to the parade.

Our Queen, Bobby Janes, was crowned during half time by Carol Delaney, a member of last year's court.

The outstanding cooperation of the student body made this the best home coming ever.

Here cheerleaders Annette St. Amour, Barbara Craib, Jo-Anne Pion, Elsie Keller, and Bruna Palma, call "Deck the Irish!", as they sail off to the game.

The Homecoming Parade

Here is the winning car, covered with red and white carnations. Seated inside are Dorothy Bar and her family. Dorothy started working way back in August, and as we can see, it was well worth it.

Judging the floats are Mr. Charnley, Father Rettig, Mr. Holden, Mr. Gardner, and Des Sheedy. Although it was a tough decision to make, the judges finally decided on first and second prizes for the cars going to Dorothy Bar, and Catherine Pierce, and first and second for the floats to John Camilleri and Dan McQueen.

The subscription drive for the Gregorian was under the supervision of Larry Birkett, Gerrard Beauchamp, and John Gentilia. These boys are well satisfied with Dennis Mulcahey's returns.

Yearbook Production Challenges the

Cecelia Wierzbicki and Annette St. Amour are learning by experience that planning, placing, and pasting pictures play an important part in publishing of a yearbook.

The Gregorian is brought to you through the diligent work of co-editors Bernard Ahearn and John Vagnetti and their staff. The plans for

St. Gregory Sponsors Third Annual Science Fair

This group typifies the large crowd which attended our Science Fair and the interest which was taken in the students' projects. The purpose of this fair was to show the great strides which our students have made in science and it truly exemplifies that at St. Gregory's "Progress is our most important product."

Our pastor, Monsignor Pokriefka and our coach, Des Sheedy admire Joe Delaney's project in General Science. We are grateful to Monsignor for granting us the use of the gym, and hope he is repaid in some measure by viewing the many projects and realizing the hours of work performed.

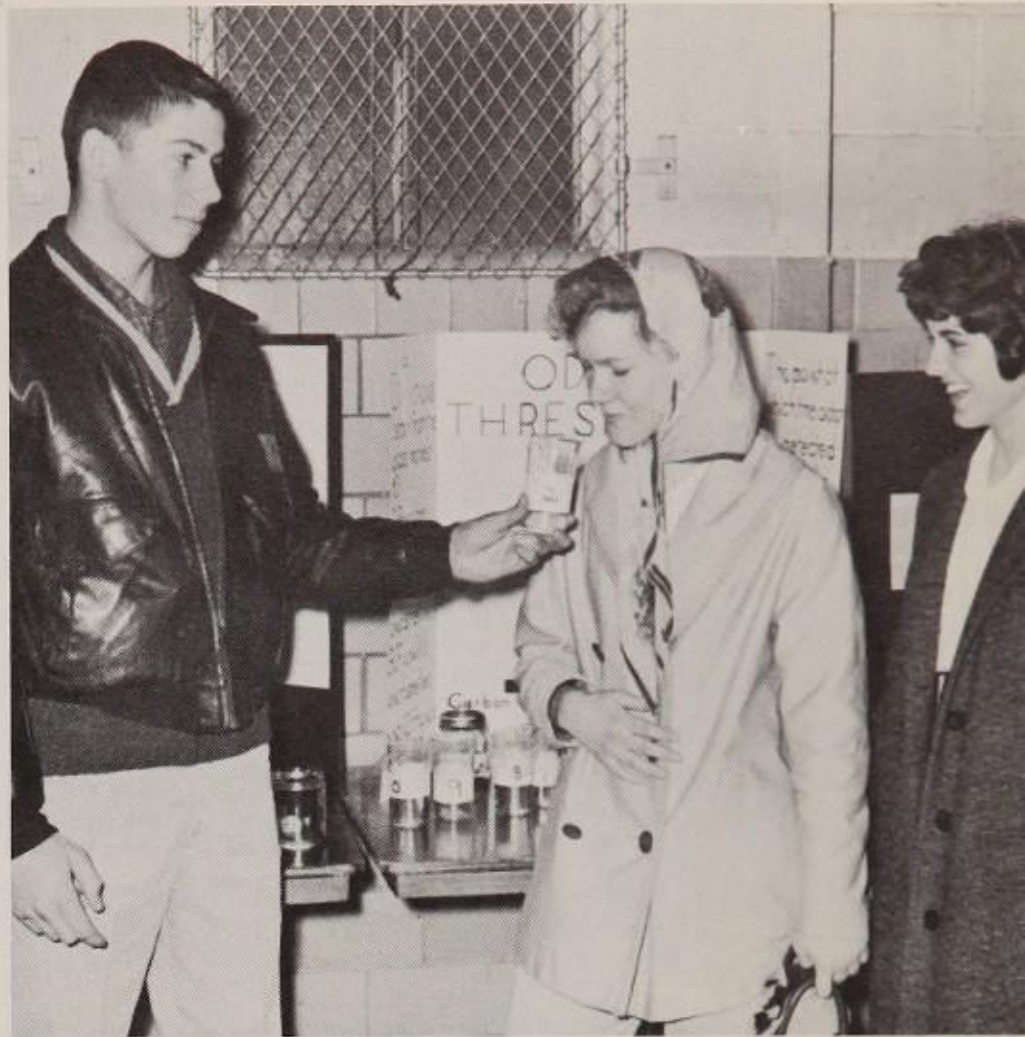

Explaining the Reactions of Organic Compounds, Jerry Kosco points out their molecular structures to Judy Driscoll.

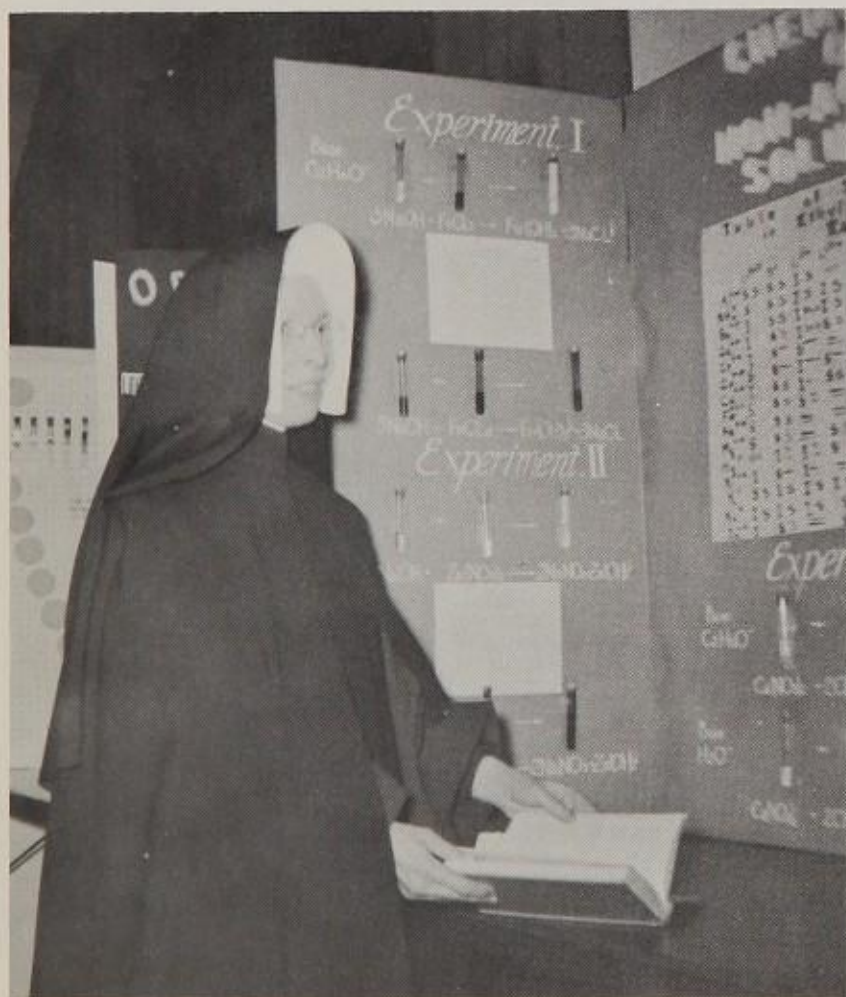

"Gerry-of-all-trades" Beauchamp demonstrates his versatility and consideration for fellow-students by helping them build and decorate their backboards.

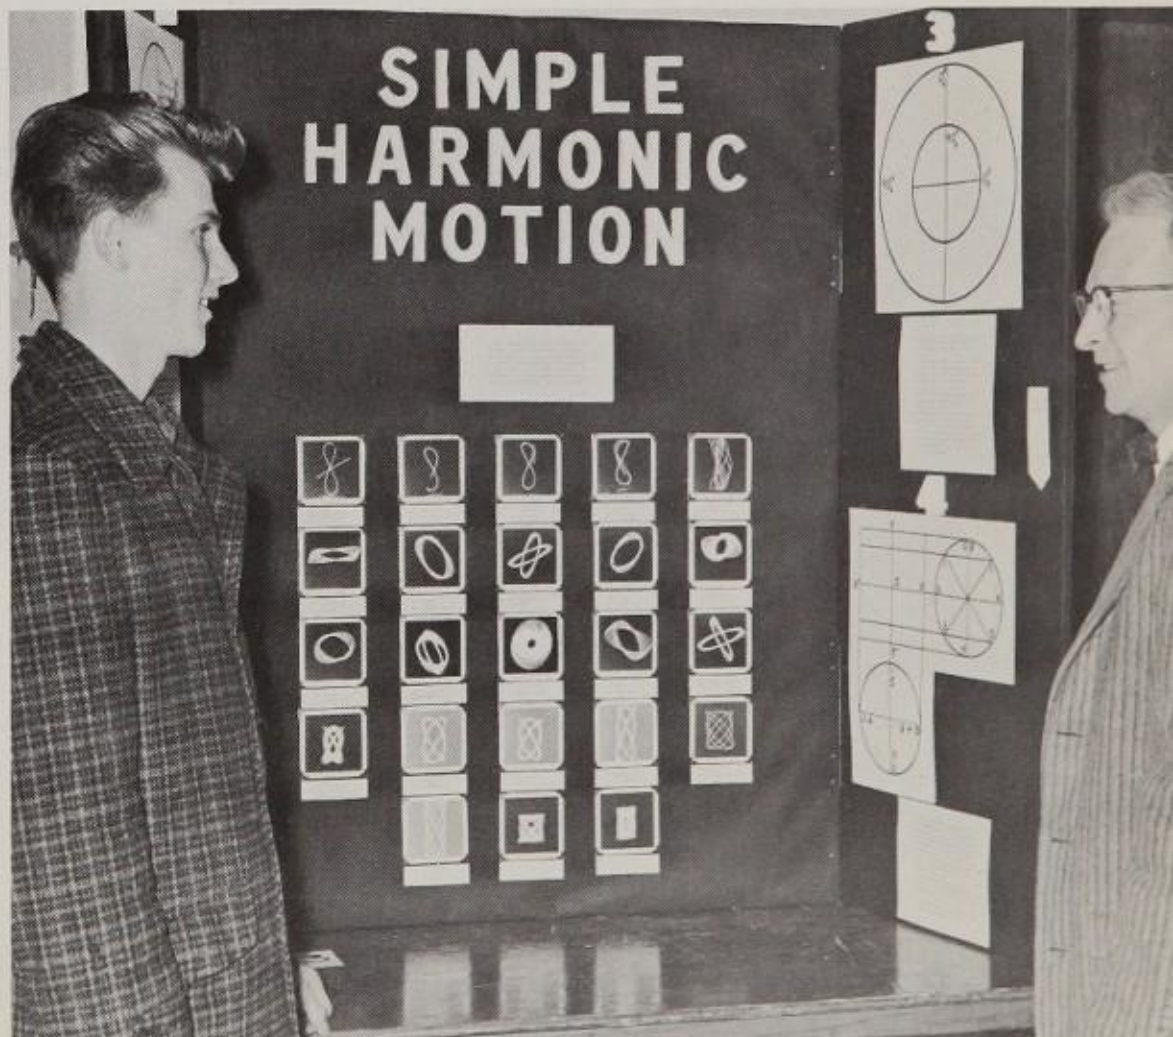

Three freshmen investigate a General Science project on "Odor Thresholds." Gregory Kent uses Kay Walsh to test the odor of vanilla while Laura Turk waits her turn.

Student interest at its best

One of the best points of the Science Fair is that it brings back old friends. Sister Frances Loretta, our former principal, found time to visit us and admire the work of our junior scientists.

A father takes just pride in the work of his son. Gary Wismer rejoices with his dad over his prize-winning Physics exhibit.

Junior Achievement has always been popular with the pupils at St. Gregory. This is the enthusiastic group of 1960-61. These pupils take pride in making and selling their products.

The Model United Nations Assembly at the University of Detroit attracts many students from the schools of the city. Our delegation representing Peru is made up of: John Vagnetti, Chairman, Gary Wismer, Julie Stayman, Patricia Burden, and William Winter.

Activities---

These are the students of achievement at St. Gregory who belong to the National Honor Society. William Winter, Jo-Anne Pion, Joan Brozovic, Susan Kozlowski, Bridget Ahearn, Jane Brennan, Donald Orr,

The student librarians are an assistance in keeping the library orderly and neat so that it may be a great service to the students. Sister Maurice gives directions to Patricia O'Malley and Carmen Pilon, while Margaret Coyle, Geraldine Godzik, Sandra Montgomery, Susan LeDuc, Carol Lister, and Carol Menosky work at the various odd jobs that are the duties of a librarian.

Varied and Many

Mary Jane McGonigal, and Carol Znoy are admiring the plaque held by Frank Turk. Inductions into the Society are a part of the Honor Convocation in June.

Boy's Day at the City-County offices was an enriching experience for our representatives, John Vagnetti and Gary Wismer.

Intramural Champs

The senior division champs, Room 101, plan their strategy during the half-time of the crucial game with the Senior Swing Team. Jerry Kilar, Charles Smith, Dan McQueen, Jim Tuohy, John Gentilia, and Jack Poniatowski, Mike Hickey, John Hyde, and Jack Browne made up the team coached by Larry Gurzick.

Clutching the ball, Ron Saari pulls down the rebound for Room 103 as Larry Pelcher ends up wringing his hands in vain. Tom Waligorski, Bernard Ahearn, Tom York, and Dan Oblak are onlookers.

Tom Waligorski outjumps Dan Oblak as Frank Turk, Terry Christian, Larry Pelcher, Ron Saari, Dominic Gentilia, and Leon Harrison poise themselves, waiting for the tip.

Sports Promote Opportunities

for Character Building. . .

The seeds of leadership and self-confidence are often buried deep within a human personality. The athletic program at St. Gregory's is geared to bring these qualities to the surface so that they might bear fruit in the sports of today and the efforts of tomorrow.

Sports cultivate the whole person. They mold character by developing initiative and responsibility. They build personal ethics through observance of the rules of the game and the practice of good sportsmanship and fairplay.

Finally, through teamwork, sports help the athlete realize that he too, is a small but vital part in a vast institution, the Catholic Church, through which God exercises His Will here on earth.

Mike Wickett runs back this kick-off while the rest of St. Gregory players carry out their blocking assignments.

Determination and Drive Mark Cherokees---

A St. Theresa player manages to get this pass away despite intense pressure being put on him by Don Orr and two other St. Gregory players.

as Lack of Experience Causes a Poor Record

Gerry Stebbins is about to bring down a St. Cecilia ball carrier, while Bob Rocco and Mike Wickett rush up to lend their support.

Joe Herrick actually shakes off this would-be tackler and picks up a few more yards.

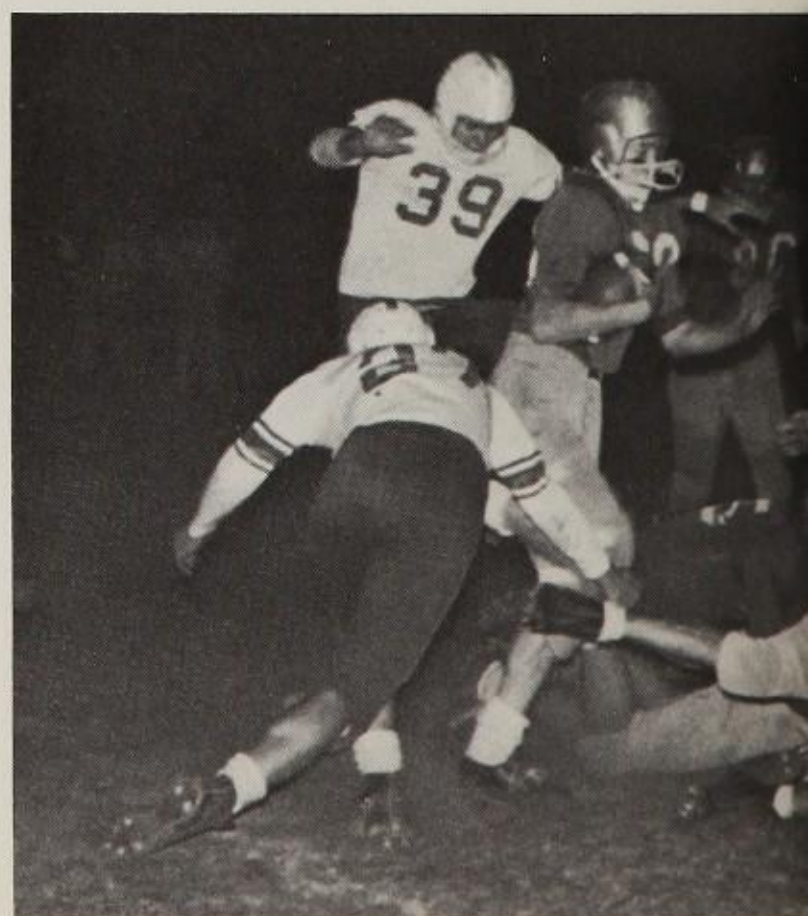

Adroit line play plus good backfield blocking are the reasons why Mike Wickett was able to pick up a sizeable gain.

St. Gregory Loses to St. Cecilia by a Slight Margin

Don't worry he didn't get away. Leo Stebbins and Tom Waligorski came up from behind to help stumbling Gerry Stebbins bring down the St. Cecilia ball carrier after he picked up a short gain.

This ball carrier saw nothing but white jerseys as Mike Hickey (39), Owen Nagy (27), Tom Waligorski (20), Bob Rocco, and Gerry Stebbins closed in on him.

Cherokees Lined-Up For 1960 Open For View

Carrying the ball in the wrong manner but demonstrating the running skill that makes him so good, Mike Wickett follows Bob Beale's blocking as Mike Hickey fends off a defender.

The two top stars of the West Side Second Division, St. Gregory's Jim Cole and St. Andrew's Leon Buda, shake hands before the beginning of a long, hard Cherokee-Flyer tussle.

St. Gregorys Loses

Up, Up, and up goes Jim Cole as he outjumps Leon Buda to start the Gregory-Andrew game.

Mirrored in the face of Coach Sheedy, Frank Higgins, and Bob Rocco, is the anxiety and tension which was characteristic of all St. Gregory games during the season.

The ball sails through the air unmolested as Joe Herrick racks up another two points for St. Gregory.

Smiles of joy illuminate the faces of Coach Holowicki and our reserve players Joe Herrick, Larry Birkett, Tom Flanagan, Mike Kulpa, Leo Stebbins, Doug Kenyon, John Norlock, Joe Leger, Gregory Kent, and Mike Sullivan after they won the championship.

The Reserves' road to the championship was a rough one. Inexperience probably provided the roughest spot on the whole road. Freshmen, dominating the ball club, made many mistakes in the first few games and it cost them a couple of victories. As they gained experience, they made fewer errors. Then a hill loomed up, made up of keen competition. By using their newly acquired experience and by rallying to the cause, the Reserves leveled the grade and from there on in had clear sailing into the championship.

A Round-Up of Sports Activities

Our two co-editors for the sports department, Frank Turk and Mike Hickey, get a chuckle from one of the pictures submitted to them for their consideration.

Some happy, some gay, some cheering and some just content to watch, are among the many types of fans who follow St. Gregory's games.

St. Gregory's Senior Lettermen look forward to College athletics. They are Dan McQueen, Larry Gurzick, Jack

Browne, Tom Waligorski, Bob Winter, Dennis Mahoney, James Cole, Mark Melia, and Mike Hickey.

Jack Browne demonstrates the grip characteristic of all 300 hitters for the returning veterans of last year's baseball team, Dan Orr, Mike Wickett, Ed Progar, Leo Cronenwett, Tom Waligorski, Dan McQueen and Jerry Stebbins.

And Suddenly it's Spring-1961

"Casey at the bat?" No, it's Dan McQueen displaying his batting form for Mike Wickett and Leo Cronenwett while Tom Waligorski settles down comfortably into his usual catching stance.

As we go to press, our baseball season has not begun. But we are sure our team with its strong nucleus composed of Jerry Stebbins, Don Orr, Leo Cronenwett, Dan McQueen, Mike Wickett, Ed Progar, Jack Browne, and Tom Waligorski will have a very successful season.

Varsity girls' basketball team, composed of Carol Znoy, Jane Brennan, Janet Boddy, Mary Jo Charnley, Jo-Anne Wismer, Kathy Waring, Susan Kozlowski, Kathy Sgro, Ida Wixon, Joan Brozovic and Pat Burden is anxious to try its skill at shooting, especially after Coach Nora Allen shows them how.

Girls, Too, Learn to Handle the Ball

The reserve team benefits from Coach Nora Allen's training and experience. Members of this year's squad are: Sandra Ford, Yvonne Diekow, Kay Walsh, Karen Gootee, Mary Leger, Dorothy Juscyk, Theresa Muzzin, Kathy Charnley, Kathy Argenta, Judy Brown, Laura Turk, and Jean Lippe.

Girls participate in an athletic program at St. Gregory. Coach Nora Allen trains both the varsity and reserve basketball teams. The girls have learned a great deal and although they did not win all their games this season, they have improved a great deal over last year. The girls enjoy playing and have plenty of opportunity for training in co-operation, fair play, self-control, and teamwork.

Cheerleading offers another activity for the girls. The cheerleaders because of their excellent work, hold a high place in the esteem of the students. They faithfully attend every game, tirelessly lead the cheers, and are happy regardless of victory or loss.

Reserve cheerleaders Kathy LaCasse, Kathy Argenta, Sue Waligorski, Judy Reiz, Andrea Muccino, Judy Driscoll, Kathy Doran, and Katy Charnley have faithfully led the cheering at all the boys Junior Varsity games.

The Paragons of Our Enthusiasm

"All set?" "You bet." "All here?" "Let's cheer" has a familiar ring for all at St. Gregory. Our cheering section profits from the daily practice of our hard-working cheerleaders: Barbara Craib, Mary Jo Charnley, Mary Piovesano, Pam Gitre, Alice Gagnon, Annette St. Amour, Joyce Poli, Bruna Palma, Elsie Keller, and Jo-Anne Pion.

Seniors Prepare to Enter a

World of Opportunities. . .

Our four-year passage through St. Gregory High School is nearing its end and soon these days will pass into pleasant memories. When we, the Senior Class of 1961, take that giant step from high school student to adult citizen, we shall be prepared to face the obstacles and to meet the opportunities that await us. For no matter what course we choose to follow, our efforts will be supported by years of spiritual and academic training. This twofold education plus the guidance of our pastor, priests, and sisters have made us confident of our future success. The opportunities may be numerous, the trials may be great, but the rewards will be gratifying and very worthwhile. The challenge to carry through now rests with us.

These Seniors of Room 110 also surpassed 100% co-operation in the Patron and Sponsor drive. Their whole hearted support gave impetus to the drive and helped to see it through to its successful conclusion. James Major, missing from this picture, was a high salesman in the group.

"There's a girl I'd like to know"

"She has so much poise and confidence—I'll bet she works for the telephone company. Those girls are so attractive and have such friendly, pleasant manners."

They're talking about Lucy, who started working for Michigan Bell right out of high school. She was trained by friendly, understanding supervisors and today she's proud of her work; enjoys a fine salary, regular wage increases, and many new friends.

Lucy was delighted from the very first by the clean, pleasant surroundings, by the regularly scheduled mid-morning and midafternoon "breaks" for relaxing in comfortable lounge rooms, and by the opportunities for advancement.

Isn't that kind of job worth going after? Then why not get in touch with us—perhaps there's a telephone job for you. We'll be happy to talk with you about the interesting work at Michigan Bell.

going to live better than ever before ... electrically!

You, today's graduate, are entering an exciting new era where you will live better than any generation has ever lived before—the era of all-electric living.

Your all-electric home for example, thanks to time-saving electric equipment and appliances, will allow you and your family more time to enjoy life together.

Your job will be smoother too. Electricity, in everything from office equipment to heavy machinery, will lighten your work—make it more enjoyable.

If you decide on further education, your field of study may well be related to electricity. Perhaps someday, as a scientist or technician, you will even lend your knowledge to further mold the all-electric world of tomorrow.

But wherever the future finds you, whatever your place in life, electricity will be there to help you live better than ever before—live better electrically.
